Council – Mayor Government

May 21, 2021

Under the latest guidance from the CDC, the Ohio Department of Health Director's Order, and the Zanesville-Muskingum County Health Department's Medical Director, Zanesville City Council Meetings will reopen to in-person public attendance on May 24, 2021 with the following guidelines-

1. Fully vaccinated* people may attend without mask or social distancing.
2. Unvaccinated or not fully vaccinated* may attend but are required to wear facial covering (mask) and engage in social distancing (6 feet) at all times (note that room space is limited, see directions below to attend remotely and to review full ODH orders and information).
3. Enter City Hall at the Market Street door.

Daniel M. Vincent
President of Council

* In general, people are considered fully vaccinated 2 weeks after their second dose in a 2-dose series (Pfizer or Moderna), or 2 weeks after a single-dose vaccine (Johnson & Johnson's Janssen).

The public may attend by telephone or online as guided below;
