Subject: Procedural Questions For 2018 Meetings

Ms. Culbertson:

I better get these questions out of the way for our 2018 Council meetings:

1. When will private petitioners be able to submit their applications by email? I've been asking for years without success.
2. May private petition applications be submitted in either/or format in case one topic/subject is not permitted?
3. How much lead time does the President of Council require to notify the private petitioners of the President's disallowed topic/subject? It's nicer to get disapproved before the meeting in time to submit an alternate topic.
4. Is the maximum 3 times per topic/subject per year?
5. How does the President define a topic/subject? For example, if Mr. Tarbert's alleged intimidation of Mr. Rogers is one topic/subject, then wouldn't the President's decision about that alleged intimidation be another topic/subject? Or if Mr. Rogers decides to take legal action against the alleged intimidators, would that be another topic/subject? One was about the alleged intimidation, another about the President's decision, and the third about possible legal action. Each different, right?
6. May private petitioners bring bottled water into chambers? It would help me speak by preventing or alleviating dry mouth at the lectern.

I am submitting these now so that the President of Council can answer them at the next Council meeting.

Thanks.

Eric Jones
