RE: Claim No.: 18-10

Dear Ms. Bryan:

I have completed my review of the claim you filed against the City of Zanesville. It is one of my duties as Law Director to review such claims and advise the City as to whether or not legal liability exists against the City. Prior to the mid 1980's, Governmental Entities were generally immune from all liability. In 1985, the Ohio Legislature enacted new laws which still granted Governmental Entities immunity in most all instances, but did provide some liability in a few limited situations.

Unfortunately, the claim that you filed does not fall within one of the areas of liability created under Chapter 2744 of the Ohio Revised Code. Therefore, your claim has been denied.

You do have the right to file a "moral claim" with the Zanesville City Council. A moral claim differs from a legal claim in that the City Council may decide that although the City is not legally liable for the claim, an ethical or moral reason exists to pay the claim. If you would like to file such a claim, you may contact your City Council person. If you are not sure who your Council Representative is, you may contact Sue Culbertson, Clerk of Council, at 740-617-4875.

Truly,

David J. Tarbert
Law Director

Cara, my Review's Decision is MADE solely on the City's legal Responsibility - I would ENCOURAGE you to discuss this matter w/ your City Councilperson.
