

GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR ZANESVILLE INCOME TAX RETURN (Form R)

GENERAL INFORMATION

Forward - The Zanesville Ordinance provides for 1.9% City Income Tax. These instructions have been prepared from the ordinance and its rules and regulations. The administrator earnestly solicits the cooperation of all taxpayers in their use, as this will help to standardize reporting procedures and at the same time save the taxpayer and this office both time and annoyance when the return is examined later. If the instructions are not clear or do not fully cover your case, call the Tax Office.

I. WHO MUST FILE A RETURN AND A DECLARATION?

The following persons must file a return and a declaration of estimated tax.

- A. Every Resident 16 yrs and older having earned income regardless of whether tax was withheld and/or engaged in a business or profession in or outside his place of residence. Rental property is included in such activity.
- B. NON-RESIDENTS 16 years and older who have earned income in Zanesville from which total city income tax has not been withheld and/or who is engaged in a business or profession in the city. This includes income from rental property located within the corporate limits owned by non-residents.
- C. A Declaration of estimated tax for the coming years which tax balance is 200 or more.

II. WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE THIS RETURN

The annual return must be filed on or before April 18 each year with the Division of Income Tax, City of Zanesville, 401 Market Street, Zanesville, Ohio 43701. If your accounting period is different from the calendar year and has been approved by the Internal Revenue Service, your return should be filed on or before the 30th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year. Any tax due must be paid when the return is filed unless balance due is less than $5.00 in which case no payment need accompany this return.

III. REFUNDS

Refunds of any overpayment of your Declaration of Estimated Income Tax may be requested, provided such overpayment is $5.00 or more and you have so indicated on your return. Amount under $5.00 will be applied to next year's tax liability. If the overpayment is due to over-withholding, such request must be filed on a Claim for Refund Form, W-2 attached. This form can be obtained from The Division of Income Tax with specific instructions.

IV. PENALTY AND INTEREST

Penalties are provided by ordinance for failure to file and/or pay a required return, for filing late and for filing a false or fraudulent return. All taxes remaining unpaid after they become due bear interest and penalty at the rate of 3½ per month (1.5% interest and 2% penalty). Late filing fee of $25.00 will be assessed on all returns not filed by April 18 regardless of tax due.

V. WHAT IS TAXABLE INCOME?

Income subject to taxation as herein used shall be considered to mean:

- A. In the case of RESIDENT INDIVIDUALS the gross salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation before any income is deferred (contributions made by or on behalf of employees to tax deferred plans) and to include: Vacation and sick pay - income from wage continuation plans, including retirement incentive plans - Stock options when amount is indicated on Form W-2 - Cost of group term life insurance over $50,000 - Severance pay - Income from guaranteed annual wage contracts - Third party sick and disability pay when premiums are paid by employer - Bonuses - Sub Pay - Rental property.

- B. In the case of RESIDENT BUSINESS or PROFESSIONAL ENTITIES owned by a resident individual, the term "Taxable Income" shall be deemed to mean the net profit arising from activity wheresoever conducted. Net Profits (before NOL) from Corporations - Partnerships (file as entity) - Resident partners file from K-1 on income not levied against the partnership - Sole Proprietorships - Farm Income - Trust & Estates. Net Rental Income is deemed to be business profits and are to be reported.
- C. In the case of NON-RESIDENT INDIVIDUALS they are subject to the tax the same as Residents but only to the extent earned within the city of Zanesville. Non-Resident individuals having income from rental property located within the corporate limits of Zanesville are required to file.
- D. In the case of NON-RESIDENT BUSINESS or PROFESSIONAL ENTITIES owned by non-resident individuals they are subject to the tax the same as Resident Business but it only applies to the portion of net profit arising from business conducted in Zanesville.
